SRI KRISHNARAJA WADAYAR BAHADUR, G. C. S. I.,

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

May it please your Gracious Highness,

In November 1906, when His Holiness, SRI VISWADHYA THEERTHA SWAMI of PEJAWAR MUTT (of Udipi) during his tour through your HIGHNESS's dominions, had made a halt at Bangalore, I had had the most pleasant duty of delivering to your HIGHNESS the RAYASA emanated from HIS HOLINESS the SWAMI requesting that a tusker (elephant) may graciously be presented to the Mutt. In response thereto, at your HIGHNESS's command, letter No. 834 of 22—11—1906 was received from the Assistant Private Secretary to your HIGHNESS stating that the request for the present of a tusker had been noted for consideration on a suitable opportunity occuring in the future. A copy of the letter is herewith respectfully submitted for your HIGHNESS's kind perusal.

I am directed by HIS HOLINESS the SWAMI to submit to your HIGHNESS that HIS HOLINESS after visiting almost all the holy places of pilgramage in Southern India is about to reach the holiest of all places SRI RAMESWARAM. HIS HOLINESS is now at Madura; and has been offering fervent prayers to his "Upasana Moorthi—SRI RAMA VITTALA DEVARU" to bestow on your HIGHNESS and family long life and prosperity. HIS HOLINESS has been serving humanity by imparting the message of God as inculcated in the Vedic Religion among the people with whom he comes in contact.

HIS HOLINESS desires to have the vessels containing the consecrated water for 'Abhishikam &,' carried on the back of the elephent presented by your HIGHNESS. With this view, HIS HOLINESS has directed me to submit this memorial on behalf of the Mutt praying for the present of a tusker on this occasion when a herd of elephants has been trapped in the Kheddas. HIS HOLINESS has, with feelings of high gratitude, directed me to lay before your HIGHNESS the general appreciation that is being expressed by all the eight Sanyasins of the Udipi Mutts who conduct the holy Puja at the shrine of SRI KRISHNA, Udipi, about the several presents made to the SRI KRISHNA's temple and the facilities created there for worship by your HIGHNESS's famous anscestors from time to time and that in presenting a tusker now prayed for, your HIGHNESS will be adding substantially to their grateful feelings towards your HIGHNESS.

In conclusion, I most loyally and respectfully beg leave to state that I have communicated to HIS HOLINESS about the submission of this memorial to your HIGHNESS and that I would communicate to HIS HOLINESS your HIGHNESS's favourable orders regarding the above prayer.

With profound respects,
I beg to remain,
Ever your Highness's humble and loyal subject,
C. N. Venkat-a Rao.
First Grade Pleader,
TUMKUR.
